Harrington Blue & Partners and FundLabs Forge Strategic Partnership to Elevate Investment Opportunities

London, UK – February 7, 2025 – Harrington Blue & Partners (www.harringtonblue.co.uk), a leader in international investment strategy, and FundLabs (www.fundlabs.io) a strategic investment firm specialising in real estate, M&A and hospitality projects, are joining forces to connect high-value investment opportunities with the right investors and funds.

This partnership leverages the strengths of both firms—Harrington Blue’s expertise in global market strategy and FundLabs’ proven track record in capital-raising and deal execution—to create a seamless bridge between premium investment opportunities and strategic capital. By combining deep market intelligence with targeted investor outreach, the collaboration enhances value creation for businesses and investors alike.

"This partnership is about amplifying impact—bringing the right opportunities to the right investors with clarity and precision," said Susana Ecclestone, CEO of Harrington Blue & Partners.

"The synergy with Harrington Blue was immediate. With their global strategy and personal approach, this partnership escalates our ability to deliver exceptional, impactful investments together to clients worldwide," said Stuart Mellody, CEO of FundLabs.

With a shared commitment to innovation and results, Harrington Blue & Partners and FundLabs are setting a new standard for strategic investment facilitation driving transformative outcomes for clients worldwide.
